

TRIPS Article 31 bis does not entail complicated legal arrangements for issuing compulsory licenses on patented pharmaceuticals, contrary to widely held opinions. It does, however, pose coordination problems that Regional Pharmaceutical Supply Centers could resolve. The Marrakesh Treaty for the Blind and Visually Impaired affords proof of concept for this position.